

CLANDEBOYE COURTYARD

The courtyard is enclosed by the main halls and meeting rooms. It is ideal for outdoor activities and floodlit for evening events. Marquees may be erected within the courtyard to extend the capacity of any of the main halls.

Adjacent to the courtyard is a small walled garden, useful for photography or as an outdoor breakout area.

BANQUETING HALL

Built by the first Marquess of Dufferin & Ava in 1898, the recently restored Banqueting Hall seats 140 guests at round or rectangular tables for dinner, or 250 delegates seated theatre-style for conference.

JAMES FRAZER ROOM

Originally the indoor tennis court, the James Frazer Room seats up to 100 dinner guests at round or rectangular tables or 120 delegates theatre-style for conferences.

DENDRON LODGE FEATURES

Lecture room measuring 5.5 x 8.5 metres, comfortably seating up to forty people

Equipment provided includes a laptop and projector, overhead projector, flip chart, slide projector, television and video

Hire charge £150 + VAT per day

Eight bedrooms allowing up to twenty four people to stay residentially. All bedrooms have wash-hand basins and bathrooms located nearby

Open plan living room and dining room with double-sided feature fireplace

£25 per person per night

ENVIRONMENTAL TRAINING

Conservation Volunteers Northern Ireland runs a programme of training to help anyone who wants to gain the knowledge and skills to improve their environment.

Training is available in a wide range of subjects including different practical skills, habitat management skills, people management skills and wider environmental knowledge. There are also many opportunities to gain accreditation through NVQ's or other forms of accredited training. A few of the subjects in which training is available include: recycling, drystone walling, pond creation, native plant identification, community involvement, chainsaw use and maintenance. Dendron Lodge is the venue for many training courses.

Visit www.cvni.org/training for more information

EDUCATIONAL VISITS

The nature trail and the surrounding woodlands are used as a venue for environmental education by schools and groups to learn more about the environment. Programmes vary anywhere from an hour to a full day.

Further information is available on request

COSTS & VIEWING

All of the facilities within the courtyard are available for hire as a shell or fully serviced, depending on your requirements. Catering is also available at an additional cost.

Marquee hire and use of the courtyard, banqueting hall and/or the James Frazer Room is not included in the costs quoted inside this leaflet.

If you would like to arrange an appointment to view Dendron Lodge and its facilities, or would like any further information about charges for hiring the various venues, please contact Karen Kane at:

Conservation Volunteers Northern Ireland
Dendron Lodge
Clandeboyne Estate
Bangor
County Down
BT19 1RN

Tel: +44 (0) 28 9185 2817
Fax: +44 (0) 28 9185 3752

Email: K.Kane@bctv.org.uk

Web: www.cvni.org

For further information about our environmental education activities, please visit the Northern Ireland Tree Campaign website at www.nitc.org.uk or email us at NITC@bctv.org.uk

Terms of booking & conditions of use

To facilitate organisation of staff and purchase of supplies for residential groups requiring catering, we require confirmation of final numbers at least one week before an event is scheduled to take place. If there is a reduction in the number of participants compared to the number originally confirmed we will still invoice for the original number.

A non-refundable deposit must be paid at the time of booking

Dendron Lodge Clandeboyne Environmental Centre

An attractive, late eighteenth century building within the courtyard of Clandeboyne Estate

Conference facilities

A venue for meetings, workshops and training events

Residential accommodation

Environmental training and educational events

*Conservation Volunteers
Northern Ireland*